ARTICLE (1) – PREAMBLE

- 1.1 The International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage is established as a Scientific, Technical, Professional, and Voluntary Not-for-profit Non-Governmental International Organization (NGO-ONG), dedicated, inter alia, to enhance the world-wide supply of food and fibre for all people by improving water and land management, and the productivity of irrigated and drained lands through the appropriate management of water, environment and the application of irrigation, drainage and flood control techniques.
- 1.2 In the text of this Constitution, the International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage is referred to as the Commission or as ICID (CIID in the French version) and among international authorities, as ICID (CIID).

ARTICLE (2) – OBJECTS

Mission

- 2.1 The Mission of the International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage is to stimulate and promote the development of the arts, sciences and techniques of engineering, agriculture, economics, ecology and social science in managing water and land resources for irrigation, drainage, flood control and river training applications, including research and development and capacity building, adopting comprehensive approaches and up-to-date techniques for sustainable agriculture in the world.

Scope

- 2.2 The Commission in achieving its mission may consider the following objectives:
 - (a) Planning, financing, socio-economic and environmental aspects of irrigation, drainage, flood control and undertakings for the reclamation and improvement of lands as well as the design, construction and operation of appurtenant engineering works including dams, reservoirs, canals, drains and other related infrastructure for storage, conveyance, distribution, collection and disposal of water.
 - (b) Planning, financing, socio-economic and environmental aspects of schemes for river training and behaviour, flood control and protection against sea water intrusion of agricultural lands as well as the design, construction and operation of appurtenant works, except such matters as relate to the design and construction of large dams, navigation works and basic hydrology;

- (c) Research and development, training and capacity building in areas related to basic and applied science, technology, management, design, operation and maintenance of irrigation, drainage, flood control, river training improvement and land reclamation.
- (d) Facilitation of international inputs required by the developing countries, particularly the low income countries lagging in the development of irrigation and drainage;
- (e) Promotion of the development and systematic management of sustained irrigation and drainage systems;
- (f) Pooling of international knowledge on the topics related to irrigation, drainage and flood control and making it available worldwide;
- (g) Addressing of international problems and challenges posed by irrigation, drainage and flood control works and promoting evolution of suitable remedial measures;
- (h) Promoting savings in use of water for agriculture;
- (i) Promoting equity including gender equity between users and beneficiaries of irrigation, drainage and flood control systems;
- (j) Promotion of preservation and improvement of soil and water quality of irrigated lands.

2.3 The Commission will accomplish its mission by:

- (a) exchange of information amongst its National Committees and Direct Members;
- (b) holding periodical meetings, sponsoring of conferences, symposia, workshops, exhibits, training and study tours;
- (c) organizing studies and experiments;
- (d) publication of research journals, conference proceedings, reports, guidelines for best practices, books, documents, audiovisual and electronic media materials;
- (e) publishing special or any other publications including newsletters, bulletins, periodicals, pamphlets, posters, magazines, teaching and extension aids and literature for informing the world community at large about the developments associated with irrigation, drainage and flood control;

- (f) cooperating with other national, regional and International Organizations, whose interests and activities are related to the mission of ICID, and
- (g) taking such other measures as may be considered necessary within its field of activities.

ARTICLE (3)– MEMBERSHIP

Basis of Membership

- 3.1 ICID consists of National Committees (Article 4) of the Member Countries, on the basis of one National Committee for each such country. Professionals, individuals and officers of government or of an institution or institutions - government and non-government; and companies, effectively representing interests within the scope of the objects of the Commission may participate in ICID activities through membership of the respective National Committees in accordance with its constitution.
- 3.2 Any geographical area independently administered by a sovereign government and having interest in the activities of the Commission shall be eligible to participate in the activities of the Commission. Accordingly, in exceptional cases, the Council may, having regard to the coexistence of separate sovereign geographical areas or countries, accept the representation of the sovereign parts of a country by separate National Committees. In the case of a Federal System of government, or similar set-up, only one National Committee shall be recognized for membership in ICID.
- 3.3 Individuals, institutions and companies from those countries that are not a Member of ICID, or those countries where the constitution of the National Committee does not have provision for the participation of individuals, institutions or companies, can become a Direct Member (Article 5) of ICID, provided they abide by the constitution of ICID.

Application for Membership

- 3.4 In applying for membership, any constituted National Committee or potential Direct Member must unreservedly signify its acceptance of the Constitution and By-laws of the Commission, and justify its claim to admissibility. A National Committee must give proof of its representative character by documenting participation of the various disciplines and institutions involved in the development and management of irrigation, drainage and flood management within the country.

- 3.5 The form in which such application must be made shall be determined by the Council in accordance with the By-laws(Article 12.4) or rules and/or other provisions of this Constitution.

Acceptance by the Council

- 3.6 The Council shall consider applications for admission to membership of ICID received in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws. It reserves the right to accept or reject any such application for admission without assigning any reason therefor.
- 3.7 After the application has been made in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws, the International Executive Council (IEC) shall decide if the application of the National Committee representing the Country is to be accepted and if so, shall determine the name of the National Committee as well as its annual subscription.
- 3.8 Similarly, the application made for Direct Membership shall be considered by IEC whose decision shall be final. Applicants shall be members of the Commission after they have been notified, in writing, by the Secretary General of the Council's decision.

ARTICLE (4) – NATIONAL COMMITTEES

Composition

- 4.1 Each National Committee may be constituted in the manner desired by each country in conformity with the provisions of this Constitution but it is recommended that, as far as possible, each National Committee shall be composed of representatives of officers of government(s), technical and scientific organizations, government and non-government institutions, irrigators, companies and individuals with interests concerned with, or desirous of promoting and furthering the mission and objectives of the Commission.

Responsibilities

- 4.2 Each National Committee shall cooperate with, and assist the Commission in promoting its mission and objectives. It shall also encourage the collaboration or cooperation of allied disciplines and institutions within the country to promote the mission and objectives of the Commission in a manner best suited to the circumstances of each country.

- 4.3 Each National Committee shall transmit a copy of its constitution and of modifications made thereto from time to time to the Central Office (Article 8.2) of ICID.

ARTICLE (5) – DIRECT MEMBERS

- 5.1 Direct Membership of the Commission may comprise:
- (a) Individuals (regular, young professional, retirees);
 - (b) Companies (classified according to the annual gross turnover); or
 - (c) Institutions (classified according to the number of employees; private institutions shall be classified as Company)
- 5.2 The classification of the Direct Membership categories shall be determined and modified as necessary from time to time in the By-Laws.
- 5.3 Direct Membership shall be open to any individual, institution or companies that meet the criteria of articles 3.3 and 3.4. In addition to individuals, Direct Members may comprise government and non-government institutions; technical, scientific and educational organisations; and private companies or private institutions/organisations with interests in and desirous of promoting and furthering the mission and objectives of the Commission.

Responsibilities

- 5.4 Each Direct Member shall cooperate with the National Committee in the home country as identified in the application form, where a National Committee exists.
- 5.5 Under exceptional circumstances, such as described in the By-Laws and amended from time to time as required, the IEC may allow Direct Membership in deviation from article 3.3.

ARTICLE (6) – INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Definition

- 6.1 The International Executive Council, hereinafter called the Council, the Executive Council or IEC is vested with the management of the affairs of the International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage.

Role

- 6.2 The Council shall consider all matters of policy which may be initiated or sponsored by any member National Committee or Office-Bearer (Article7) or by the Management Board (Article8.1) and may itself initiate and determine or otherwise advise and lay down any matter of policy. The Council shall also consider what action, if any, need be taken on the recommendations or conclusions of the studies, experiments or discussions organized by the Commission. All matters affecting the executive or administrative functions and financial liabilities of ICID must come up before the Council and its decision shall be conclusive. The Central Office of ICID shall act as an instrument for carrying into effect all decisions taken by the Council.

Composition

- 6.3 The Council shall consist of the Office-Bearers, as hereinafter mentioned, and one duly appointed representative from each National Committee, other than those deemed to be inactive (Article11).Such National Committees, acting autonomously, may change its representative at any time it may desire. The appointed representatives of the National Committees and the Office-bearers attending a meeting shall constitute the membership of the Council for that meeting.
- 6.4 A National Committee may send more than one representative to a meeting of the Council, but each National Committee shall be entitled to one vote only. No Office-Bearer (past or present), unless acting as the representative of a National Committee, shall have any vote except that the President shall have a casting vote. Decisions shall be taken by a simple majority of those present and voting, except when otherwise specified in this Constitution.
- 6.5 Any National Committee which will have no representative at a meeting of Council may submit any matter in writing to the Secretary-General for consideration by the Council; this shall be read at the meeting but shall not be deemed to constitute a vote at the meeting except when the Council may decide in any particular case.
- 6.6 Former Presidents, Vice-Presidents and Secretaries-General of the Commission are respectively called Presidents Honoraire, Vice-Presidents Honoraire, and Secretaries-General Honoraire. They shall be privileged to take part in the meetings of the Council after their terms of office have expired, but will not be eligible to vote in addition to their respective National Committees.
- 6.7 Direct Members can participate in the meeting of the Council but will not be eligible to vote.

- 6.8 The Council shall set up such committees, work groups, task forces, and other work bodies as it may consider necessary for the performance of such functions or implementation of such of its policies or decisions as it may desire and may make such specific delegation of its powers to each of them as it may deem desirable.
- 6.9 In the interest of furthering the objects of the Commission, the Council may take all such action as it may consider necessary within the framework of this Constitution.

Annual Meeting

- 6.10 An ordinary meeting of the Council shall be held at least once every year, at such place as may be determined by the Council for the transaction of the business of the Commission, including approval of annual budget, estimates of receipts and expenditure, and for the election of Office-Bearers.

ARTICLE (7) – OFFICE-BEARERS

Composition

- 7.1 The Office-Bearers of ICID shall be one President and, nine Vice-Presidents, who shall hold office in an honorary capacity (without remuneration), and one Secretary-General.

Election of President and Vice-Presidents

- 7.2 Election of Office-Bearers with the exception of the Secretary-General shall be by majority vote of the members of the Council present when the election takes place.
- 7.2.1 The Council shall frame such By-laws as it may deem necessary laying down the procedure for the elections, including that for determining the relative seniority of Vice-Presidents.
- 7.2.2 Not more than one of the ten offices (One President and nine Vice-Presidents) shall be held by any one country at one time.
- 7.2.3 Except as provided in Article 7.3.1, the President shall be elected at the Council meeting taking place concurrently with a Congress and shall take office at the conclusion of the Congress and its adjunct study tours. The term of office of the President shall be three years, which period, for the purpose of this Article, shall be the period from the end of one Congress to the end of the next Congress.

- 7.2.4 The term of office of each of the nine Vice-Presidents shall be for duration of three years. For the purpose of this Article, a term shall commence at the conclusion of the Executive Council meeting and its appurtenant study tours during which the election was held and terminate at the conclusion of the third ordinary Executive Council meeting and its appurtenant study tours. In case this third Executive Council meeting is held at the time of the Congress, then the term of office shall expire at the conclusion of the Congress and its appurtenant study tours. A special meeting of the Council shall not affect the term of office.
- 7.2.5 A President or a Vice-President shall hold office for only one full term of three years, not counting for this purpose any appointment and its term under Article 7.3 for part of a term. This rule shall not, however, come in the way of election as President of any person who may be Vice-President or has held this office at any time earlier.

President Incapacitated

- 7.3 In the event of the President being temporarily incapacitated, the most senior Vice-President shall perform the functions of the President during the continuance of such incapacity until the next ensuing meeting of the Council when the position shall be reviewed by the Council.
- 7.3.1 Should the President die, become permanently incapacitated or resign during his period of office, the first Vice-President, failing whom the second Vice-President, failing whom the third Vice President, and so on in order of seniority, shall perform the functions of the President until the next ensuing meeting of the Council when the Council shall fill such vacancy, the person so appointed to serve for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the President whose place he is taking.

Vice-President Vacancies

- 7.4 In the event of vacancy occurring from any cause whatever, in any of the offices of Vice-President, the Council shall fill such vacancy at its next meeting, the person so appointed to serve for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the Vice-President whose place he is taking.

Appointment of Secretary-General

- 7.5 Nomination: The Secretary-General shall be nominated by the President, acting as Chairperson of the Management Board, and appointed by the Council.

- 7.6 Term of Office: The term of office of the Secretary-General shall normally be three years unless otherwise specified by the Council and shall normally commence at the beginning of the calendar year, or otherwise expressly stated in the appointment letter. As far as possible, the term of the office of the Secretary-General shall be such that it shall not end at the same time as the term of the President. The incumbent Secretary-General may be renominated for reappointment to a second consecutive term. Only under special circumstances may the Secretary-General be renominated to a third term.
- 7.7 Conditions of Appointment: The conditions and terms of appointment of the Secretary-General shall be defined by the President, acting as Chairperson of the Management Board. The President, acting as the Chairperson of the Management Board shall make arrangements for the continuance of functions should the Secretary-General be unable to perform his duties.

Irregularity of Appointment

- 7.8 Any irregularity in the appointment or continuance in the office/offices of President and Vice-Presidents will not vitiate any decisions or resolutions that have been passed at the meeting/meetings of the International Executive Council.

Secretary-General Incapacitated

- 7.9 Should the Secretary-General become temporarily incapacitated during his term of office, the President, acting as Chairperson of the Management Board, shall arrange for the carrying out of the functions of the Secretary-General during the continuance of such incapacity until the next ensuing meeting of the Council when the position shall be reviewed by the Council.
- 7.10 Should the Secretary-General become permanently incapacitated, resign or die during his term of office, the President, acting as the Chairperson of the Management Board, shall arrange for the carrying out of the functions of the Secretary-General until a new Secretary-General is appointed by the Council.

Notification to Banks

- 7.11 Information about the exigency mentioned in Articles 7.9 and 7.10 occurring will be given to the Banks by the President, in order to enable the continuance of operations on the accounts of the Commission by a designated employee until the recovery of the Secretary-General or the appointment of the new Secretary-General as the case may be. The Banks shall also be informed that instead of the Secretary-General, until further notice, the President, shall act as the First Trustee of the ICID Contributory Provident fund.

Delegation of Powers by Council

- 7.12 The Council may delegate, from time to time, such specific function, or functions and/or powers and rights, as it may find expedient, to the President of the Commission, in addition to the normal duties of the President as described in Article 7.15. The President shall be the Presiding Officer at a Congress and at all meetings of the Council. The Management Board may suggest an appropriate person to the host Organizing Committee to conduct the different technical sessions organized in conjunction with a Congress, conference or annual meeting of the Council.
- 7.13 The Council may delegate such of its powers to the Secretary-General, or to a serving Vice-President, as it may deem desirable from time to time.

Absence of President

- 7.14 Except as provided in Articles 7.12 and 7.13, the Vice-Presidents in order of seniority in office shall be presiding officers of meetings of the Commission in the absence of the President. For the Opening and Closing Sessions of a Congress, however, in the absence of the President, the presiding officers shall be from among the Vice-Presidents present as may be decided at a meeting of Office-Bearers preceding the Congress.

The President: Responsibilities

- 7.15 The President is the highest officer of ICID elected by the International Executive Council. The duties of the President shall include, but not be limited to the following duties subject to the provisions of the Constitution and By-laws:

- 10.2 The Council may decide to grant the status of Permanent Observer to the representatives of international organizations, scientific societies, development agencies, international financial institutions and U.N. agencies for the meetings of the International Executive Council of ICID and/or for the meetings of its regional groups and Permanent Committees.

- 10.3 Representatives of international organizations may also be invited, with the approval of the Council, to work as members of the temporary work bodies established by the Commission.
- 10.4 The concessions or facilities to be given to the Permanent Observers, if any, shall be determined by Council.

Joint Meetings

- 10.5 The Council may arrange with other international organizations to hold joint meetings, conferences and deliberations or to carry out jointly with them activities, studies, surveys and investigations, on subjects within the scope of activities of ICID. The financial and other arrangements for these joint activities shall be as may be agreed upon between representatives of ICID and the international organizations and approved by the Management Board.
- 10.6 The Commission may, with the approval of the Council, enter into formal memorandum of understandings with other international organizations to develop collaborative arrangements for international work.
- 10.7 The Commission may also participate in the work of the prestigious international bodies, which may be established for more comprehensive management of water resources, other natural resources and the environment.

Work at Cost

- 10.8 The Commission may undertake work for any other organization, at the cost of that organization, the actual arrangements for carrying out the work shall be as approved by the Management Board in each individual case.

ARTICLE (11) – DUES, SUBSCRIPTIONS AND FUNDS

Annual Subscriptions

- 11.1 In order to defray the cost of the activities of the Commission or for special purposes, the National Committees and Direct Members shall regularly pay to the order of the Secretary-General annual subscriptions (in as near the beginning of each calendar year as may be possible) on the basis pre-determined by the Council. National Committees of Member countries and Direct Members shall also pay such other special subscriptions as may be determined by the Council.

- 11.2 In case of non-payment of annual subscription by a National Committee or Direct Member, for a period of time which the Council may, in its discretion, consider appropriate in the particular case, the Council may decide that National Committee is deemed to be inactive in its membership of ICID, provided that before reaching such decision the Council shall have given an opportunity to the National Committee to clear the arrears of subscription by a date to be specified.
- 11.3 Any National Committee which has not paid its annual subscription for two consecutive years shall cease to be eligible thereafter from holding any office - whether it be as Office-Bearer or as Member of an ICID work body, as the case may be, until such time as the arrears be paid.
- 11.4 Furthermore, any National Committee which is in arrears of annual subscriptions for three years or more shall, in addition, cease to be eligible to receive any document or report of the Commission and shall have no right of voting at a meeting of the Council and shall be deemed to be inactive and consequently withdrawn from membership of ICID, unless the Council in exceptional circumstances decides by simple majority vote to waive or postpone the application of these sanctions. Such a decision shall be taken strictly in conformity with the special procedure stipulated in the By-laws by a majority of the members in good standing present at the Council meeting, and who are not in arrears of payment of subscription.

Registration Fees

- 11.5 For each Congress, regional conference, technical session, international workshop or such other international activity, the Council may, in consultation with the National Committee of the host country, fix individual registration fees, or fees for participating organizations.

Funds

- 11.6 The Central Office shall be authorized to receive and to handle as funds of the Commission, any subscription, subvention or gift that may be made in the general interests of the objects of the Commission, or for specific research, special investigation or experimental work; and it may arrange, under general authority given by the Council, cooperative research, investigations or experimental work with other international organizations, properly qualified institutions, governmental or private, or with technical societies or associations.
