ICID BY-LAWS 2018

BY-LAW (1) – PREAMBLE

1.1 Enactment of By-laws

These By-laws have been enacted by the International Executive Council for the due implementation of the provisions of the Constitution of the International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage. The words and expressions defined in the aforesaid Constitution will have the same meaning in these By-laws.

1.2 Changes of By-laws

The Council shall have powers from time to time to add, repeal, amend or vary all or any of the By-laws as they shall think expedient or fit for the management of the affairs of the Commission, or implementation of the powers of the Council, under the Constitution. The By-laws shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Commission.

BY-LAW (2) – ELECTION OF OFFICE-BEARERS

2.1 Office-Bearers Committee

2.1.1 All Office-bearers, Presidents Honoraire, Vice-Presidents Honoraire and Secretaries-General Honoraire, attending a Council meeting shall form themselves into an Office-Bearers Committee (OBC), chaired by the President.

2.1.2 The OBC will meet informally prior to the meeting of the International Executive Council and, after considering all nominations made in accordance with By-law (2), make recommendations to the Council for filling the vacancies in light of the considerations listed in By-law (2.7). After considering the Committees recommendations the Council shall vote to fill the vacancies.

2.2 Notification of Vacancies

Seven (7) months before the date fixed for a Council meeting, the Secretary-General shall inform all National Committees of the vacancies in the office of the President and Vice-Presidents that will exist at the time of the meeting. This intimation may be accompanied with a statement showing, inter-alia, and names of the countries which have held these offices in the past.

2.3 Nomination by National Committee

2.3.1 Should any National Committee so desire, it may submit its written nomination of a candidate from the same country for the post of President and Vice President (in a manner prescribed by the Council – Annex) keeping in view the President or Vice President nominee should be conversant with the functioning of the Executive Council by way of having been an active member of any of the workbodies and having attended the workbody meetings / IEC meetings for at least 3 years. The complete nomination accompanied by a statement of substantiation giving particulars of experience and qualifications of the nominee together with the grounds for the recommendation for the pertinent position shall be received at the Central Office, at least four (4) months before the date of the Council meeting.

2.3.2 Nominations received shall be scrutinized by the President as the Returning Officer and the eligible candidates intimated 3 months before the meeting of the Council except nominations received under By-law 2.5. The eligible list of candidates shall be shown in the agenda of the Council meeting. In the case of postponement of a Council meeting, nominations received four (4) months in advance of the original date of the Council meeting only shall be considered. The National Committee submitting the nomination shall ensure that all arrears of subscription as required under By-law 13.1 shall clear the same before the last date of receipt of nomination in the ICID Central Office.
2.4 Nominee Statement

With the nomination in the prescribed form the National Committee shall also furnish a written statement from its nominee as follows:

“My Government/Organization agrees to my nomination for the office of the President/Vice-President of ICID after taking into account the duties and responsibilities of my candidature entail. If elected to the office, I will owe allegiance to the Constitution of the International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, defend and uphold the ICID Constitution”.

2.5 Nomination by President

The President may, in consultation with the Secretary-General, invite any National Committee to submit a nomination for the vacancy in the office of the President or of a Vice-President. Such nomination in writing with complete curriculum vitae and other particulars as already prescribed in By-law 2.3.1 must be received in the Central Office at least one month prior to the effective date of the Council meeting at which it will be actually deliberated. In case of a postponed meeting it must be received at least one month prior to the actual date on which the Council meeting will be held.

2.6 Promotion / Canvassing by National Committees

The National Committees belonging to the eligible candidates, if they so desire, may promote / canvas the candidature of the nominee for election of Office-Bearer.

2.7 Office-Bearers Recommendations

All eligible nominations and the relevant curriculum vitae of such nominees shall also be made available to the Office-Bearers Committee on standardized forms for review and recommendations. The following shall, inter alia be the considerations to guide the Office-Bearers Committee in making its said recommendations to the Council for the election of the President and the Vice-Presidents:

(a) Subject to administrative and constitutional requirements, it is desirable that the ten offices (of the President and the nine Vice-Presidents) shall be distributed as equitably as may be practical between different geographical regions and among as many participating countries as possible. Thus, no country should hold more than one office (President or Vice-President) at one time, and no geographical region should normally hold more than its due proportionate number of the total number of offices including the office of President.

(b) The period for which the country of the nominee has been a member of the Commission, and the extent of interest its National Committee and/or its nominee has taken in the activities of the Commission. The nominee’s activity both at the national and international levels besides the activities of the National Committee should be given prominence.

(c) The general or special needs of ICID of persons qualified for developing its activities and the qualifications of the nominee for meeting such requirements. The overall interests of the Commission (the service it can render to the international community in its field of activity) shall always reign supreme.

(d) The time and effort the nominee has given in the past to the general affairs and functions of the Commission along with the nominee’s likely future availability, time and effort and the likely particular assigned tasks.

(e) The national and international status and level of responsibility of the nominee.

2.8 Seniority of Vice Presidents

The relative seniority of three Vice-Presidents elected each year shall be determined by the number of votes obtained by each. If there is no voting or the votes obtained are equal, then the seniority shall be decided by a draw of lots.

2.9 Nomination of Secretary General

The President, acting as Chairperson of the Management Board shall make a nomination to the office of Secretary-General, at the Office-Bearers meeting and to Council.

BY-LAW (3) – WORK BODIES OF ICID

General Scope

3.1 Setting-up

In pursuance of Article 6.10 of the Constitution, the Council may set up work bodies of either permanent or temporary nature, for the performance of such functions or for a particular mission as deemed expedient for the promotion of the objects of the Commission.

3.2 Types

The work bodies may be constituted in the form of a:

(a) Permanent Committee - where the duties are to be carried out in a repetitive manner over a long period and the outcome is required to be reported directly to the Council.

(b) Board/Special Committee/Sub-Committee where the duties are required to be carried out in a repetitive manner over a long period and the outcome is required to be reported to the Management Board and/or Permanent Committee.

(c) Working Groups constitute the key mechanism to accomplish the mission of ICID by providing the platform to carry out its objectives for pooling international knowledge, addressing international problems, facilitation of the international inputs required by the developing countries and exchanging information among National Committees.

(d) Work Team or a Task Team can be set up where a short duration task (spread over a period of not more than three years) is to be completed by a select small group of individuals.

(e) Task Force can be set up where a work of an urgent nature is required to be completed within a span of two years with a select group of individuals.

(f) Focus Group/Regional Group -- where a continuous follow up of an area oriented activity is implied on a long term basis.

3.3 Meetings

The work bodies will carry on their mandate primarily through electronic correspondence and periodical meetings, in principle once a year at least. Copies of all documents and correspondence pertaining to the workbodies shall be mailed to the Central Office by the Chairperson.

3.4 Members of Work Bodies

(a) The Working Groups shall comprise of experts/representatives nominated by National Committees from different regions of the world, and shall include any qualified expert or group of qualified experts, from various disciplines as appropriate. All such nominations shall be submitted to the Council for its consideration, approval or modification. Direct members and observers may participate in the meetings of the work bodies.

(b) For Work Team/ Task Team/ Task Force the qualified experts may be proposed to the Council under request from the Chairperson of the work body or from the President in agreement with the Secretary-General.

(c) All members shall carry out their functions in ICID on an honorary basis.

3.5 Limitation on Members

The membership of the work bodies shall be on an honorary basis (at least so far as the Commission is concerned). No person shall be a member of more than three (3), work bodies not counting Office-Bearers Committee, Management Board or Staff Committee. Direct members shall be the members of not more than three (3) work bodies. Members of work bodies not contributing by their attendance/ correspondence for two consecutive years shall be replaced on the recommendations of the Chairman of the work body. For a wider representation of countries in a permanent workbody, not more than one nomination from one country shall be accepted. In the case of a temporary work body, not more than four members may be nominated by a particular National Committee, provided at least one of the additional members is a young professional, and together they do not exceed 20% of the strength of the work body.
3.6 Conclusions are Advisory

The conclusions of all work bodies shall be advisory in nature and shall be effective only after they are approved and accepted by the Council with such modifications as the Council may desire.

3.7 Approval of Documents

The documents and conclusions emanating from such work bodies set out either in the form of work documents or of recommendations presented by the Chairperson on behalf of the body.

3.8 Permanent Committees

3.8.1 General

(a) The Council may set up Permanent Committees with missions of general vocation for administration and management, or of specialized technical vocation depending upon requirements. Each Committee may carry out its work either directly or through temporary work bodies created by it or connected with it.

(b) Members of such Committees will be designated at the Council meeting on the basis of nominations made by National Committees from their membership or by the President in consultation with the Secretary-General, taking into account the specific expertise required and ability to serve. New members will be chosen from the nominees, after the concerned Permanent Committee has given its opinion.

(c) Members of each Committee will be appointed for a three-year term by the Executive Council at the time of a Congress and may continue to function up to a total of six years, continuously or intermittently. Members, who no longer are actively functioning, may be replaced at the time of the Council meeting according to the aforesaid rules.

(d) The Office-Bearers Committee, the Management Board and the Staff Committee will be presided over by the President (Articles 7.15 and 8.1 of the Constitution), while the Chairperson of the Permanent Committee on Strategy and Organization (PCSO) will be nominated by the President in consultation with the Secretary-General (By-Law 3.9.5(c)) The Chairpersons of other Permanent Committees will be nominated at the Council meeting under recommendations of the Office-Bearers Committee.

(e) The Secretary-General will be a member of the Permanent Committees and will advise on the overall functioning of these Committees. The President, apart from presiding over the Office-Bearers Committee and the Management Board, may participate in the meetings of any of the other Permanent Committees as an Observer.

(f) Honoraire Office-Bearers willing to participate in the activities of work bodies may do so as Honoraire Members in addition to the regular members.

(g) The Chairperson of a Permanent Committee may designate Rapporteur(s) from amongst members for reporting on the matters dealt with by the Committee.

(h) Each Permanent Committee may itself elect its Vice-Chairperson, and its Secretary for drafting the minutes of its meetings.

(i) When Rapporteurs and Secretaries are appointed to the Permanent Committees, the National Committees to which the Rapporteurs/Secretaries belong must undertake to provide the required support to the secretaries / rapporteurs. At the end of the tenure, records of work should be passed on to the Central Office for future reference.

3.9 Role and Membership

3.9.1 The Council has constituted the following six (6) Permanent Committees and has fixed their overall role and membership as follows:

3.9.2 The Management Board is responsible, with the Central Office, for the implementation of the decisions made by Council and will decide such actions in between Council meetings as are necessary to properly effect the working of the Commission.

3.9.3 The Permanent Finance Committee (PFC)

(a) The Permanent Finance Committee (PFC) shall be concerned with the financial matters of the Commission and matters having significant financial implications to the Commission. It will review the receipts and expenditure, advise the Council on the previous year’s accounts and on the proposed or provisional budget and will make recommendations on the annual subscriptions and other support required from the National Committees and the direct members for the current and future years. It may give its opinion to the President and the Secretary-General on the elements to be taken into account to prepare budgets of the future years. The Committee shall also work out and recommend to the Council ways and means of improving the financial resources of the Commission to meet the financial requirements for undertaking different programs and activities emanating from the other work bodies. The Committee shall have a Sub-Committee to consider the applications of direct members and review the membership of the National Committees in arrears of subscription.

(b) The Permanent Finance Committee shall comprise the Secretary-General and a minimum of nine and a maximum of fifteen elected members. The Chairperson of this Committee shall be chosen at the Executive Council meeting either from among Office-Bearers (preferably those in offices) elected to this Committee or others who shall have been in service on the Committee at the time of appointment of the Chairperson.

3.9.4 The Permanent Committee for Technical Activities (PCTA)

(a) The Permanent Committee for Technical Activities (PCTA) shall be concerned with all the technical activities including the issuing of all publications of ICID. It will be responsible for making recommendation on the setting up of new Working Groups or continuation of the existing Working Groups under it, the activities of the technical work bodies, for the selection of the Questions/Themes for the Congresses/Forum, Conferences, Special Sessions, Symposia, etc., for the settlement of the technical conclusions thereof and for making appropriate recommendations for action thereon. The Committee shall develop and maintain a 3-year rolling plan of activities for all its appurtenant Committees and work groups, teams, and task forces. It will monitor progress against this plan at each Council meeting.

(b) The Permanent Committee for Technical Activities will be composed of the Secretary-General, who will act as the Secretary of the Committee, a minimum of nine and a maximum of fifteen elected members, as well as ex-officio members. The Chairperson of this Committee shall be chosen at the Executive Council meeting either from among the Office-Bearers (preferably those in offices) elected to this Committee or others who shall have been in service on the Commission at the time of appointment of the Chairperson. The Chairpersons of the work bodies reporting to the Permanent Committee on Technical Activities (PCTA) shall be the ex-officio members of the Committee.

(c) Strategic, thematic and crosscutting issues may be initiated from time to time as decided by PCTA. Each of the chosen Strategy Themes will be managed by a Strategy Theme Leader who shall be nominated by the President from among the current VPs.

(d) The role and responsibility of the Strategy Theme Leaders shall be as follows:

(i) To coordinate the activities of the Workbodies coming within the ambit of assigned strategy theme.

(ii) To suggest to PCTA new items of work that may be taken up by the existing workbodies.

(iii) To suggest formation of new Workbodies to study the hitherto uncovered aspects/issues relating to the particular strategy theme.

(iv) To recommend to PCTA inter- Workbody mechanisms on aspects/issues requiring joint study, and to facilitate such co-operations.

3.9.5 The Permanent Committee on Strategy and Organization (PCSO)

(a) The Permanent Committee on Strategy and Organization (PCSOS) will undertake issues related to strategic planning for ICID and shall be concerned with expanding the ICID network by increasing the number of member countries, assisting the National Committees to become more broad-based and active in their own countries and to achieve goals set for them from time to time, and increasing the participation of Direct members. The Committee will coordinate the activities of the Vice-Presidents in this area.

(b) The Committee shall also monitor the progress of the regional activities undertaken by the focus groups/regional groups and activities of special membership categories like the Young Professional Forum, and regional associations and deal with the long-term policies and strategies of the Commission and the global or regional programs related with such objectives.
(c) The Permanent Committee on Strategy and Organization will be composed of the incumbent Vice-Presidents, the Secretary-General, who will act as the Secretary of the Committee, and three immediate past Vice Presidents and the Coordinator of IYPEF. The Chairperson of the Committee will be nominated by the President in consultation with the Secretary-General from amongst the incumbent Vice-Presidents. The Chairperson shall serve the Committee during the tenure of membership of this Committee.

3.9.6 The Office-Bearers Committee shall compose of the Office-bearers in office and the Honoraire Office-bearers and will in general advise on all important questions concerning the policy, the orientations and the overall functioning of ICID. One of its primary duties is to make recommendations for filling the vacancies among Office-bearers, but the Council would still have the last word in the elections.

3.9.7 The Staff Committee shall be headed by the President with other members as designated by the Management Board to review and formulate the work procedures and the staff structure of the Central Office in keeping with the changing requirements of ICID and advise the Secretary-General on the functioning of the Central Office.

3.9.8 Special Committees: In the intervals between the meetings of the Council, for any urgent matter which cannot be allowed to wait until the next meeting of Council, the President of the Commission may, in consultation with the Secretary-General, or the Management Board, appoint special committees composed of Office-bearers or of persons to be nominated by such National Committees as the President may decide. He / She may also refer any specific matter to a National Committee for examination and report. Such action of the President shall be subject to confirmation at the next meeting of the Council.

3.10 Temporary Work Bodies

3.10.1 Temporary work bodies such as Working Groups, Work/Task Teams, Task forces, Focus/ Regional groups, may be established within a specific area of study consisting of members nominated as given in By-law 3.1 and 3.2 by the Executive Council in pursuance of Article (6.10) of the Constitution. Their mandate and composition shall be defined and modified as necessary by the Council. Temporary Work Bodies are established with a clear mandate and with an objective to generate outputs to share with the irrigation experts beyond the work bodies themselves.

3.10.2 The Council will determine the duration of their functioning and specify to which Permanent Committee the work body so created is to be linked. The duration of such functioning may be shortened or lengthened by the Council keeping in view the results accomplished by the work body after considering the recommendations of the concerned permanent committee. Duration of the membership of a workbody is expected to be six years or less.

3.10.3 The Committee, to which the temporary body is linked, may propose at the Council meeting a list of members to serve on the body on the basis of the nominations on request by the President in agreement with the Secretary-General. The members of the temporary work bodies by themselves designate their Chairpersons, Vice-Chairpersons and Secretaries.

3.10.4 The Chairpersons of the temporary work bodies will, in principle, be invited as ex-officio members to the meeting of the Committee or the Permanent Committee to which the work body is linked.

3.10.5 The Chairpersons of the temporary work bodies shall submit, reports on the possible changes in the membership of the work bodies and the activities of their work bodies including, if relevant, proposals for holding Workshops/Seminars to present their Group’s findings, once a year at the meetings of the permanent committees to which the workbody belongs. The Chairpersons of the concerned Permanent Committees may present recommendations from these reports at the Council meeting.

3.10.6 The temporary Special Committee set up in pursuance of Articles 12.1 and 12.3 of the Constitution to recommend on the amendments of the Constitution and By-laws shall continue as an advisory link to the Office-Bearers Committee for a duration as deemed necessary by the Council.

3.11 Vice-Presidents’ Role

3.11.1 Each Vice-President will be given responsibility by PCSO for a group of National Committees to foster and encourage their greater participation.
3.11.2 In addition, the President will allocate in consultation with the Secretary-General specific functions to the Vice-Presidents. Such functions may, inter alia, include relations with other international organizations, follow-up on the activities of work bodies in their regions and helping the Central Office in matters associated with National Committees in their region. Each Vice-President may be associated directly with a work body. The Chairmanship of the Regional Working Groups, as far as possible, should be assigned to a Vice President in the region.

3.11.3 Notwithstanding the generality of the foregoing, the Vice-Presidents may be assigned any of the following duties by the President:

(a) Participate in the Permanent Committee on Strategy and Organization by proposing issues for consideration and contribute to the development of regional strategies and special programmes in irrigation and drainage.

(b) To act as the Strategy Theme Leader in accordance with the By-law 3.9.4(c).

(c) Have contact, meetings and if possible visit and participate in the activities of National Committees in his/her region every year, review the setup of the National Committees, and guide them for evolving a broad-based structure as a Non-Governmental Organization.

(d) Guide the National Committees in respect of their programmes for wider publicity of irrigation and drainage related issues and concerns through pamphlets/posters/exhibitions/ audiovisuals and media to reach the irrigation and drainage community at large.

(e) Promote regional cooperation amongst the National Committees through developing regional collaborative programmes.

(f) Promote international programmes in irrigation and drainage by/for the National Committees.

(g) Represent ICID in international events taking place in his/her region.

(h) Liaise with National Committees on above-mentioned items and other programmes/activities initiated by ICID.

3.12 Council Designates

The Council may also refer specific matters to a National Committee, or a group of National Committees, for examination or report, for collection of data and information or for preparing a draft publication.

3.13 Termination of Duties

When any Committee or other workbody has completed specific work allotted to it, and has submitted its final report to the Council, it shall be deemed to have been discharged. When in like manner a National Committee has completed its work and made its final report to the Council, it shall be deemed to have been discharged of its functions in respect of the matter on which it has made its report.

BY-LAW (4) – INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

4.1 Agenda

4.1.1 Timing of Agenda: The agenda for a meeting of the Council shall be sent by the Central Office, to the National Committees, direct members and Office-Bearers, at least one month before the date of the meeting. The agenda, which shall also indicate the exact date and venue of the meeting in the host country, shall be approved by the Secretary-General.

4.1.2 Contents of Agenda: The agenda shall include the following:

(a) Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Commission since the preceding report and more particularly about the activities not covered by the Annual Report for the preceding year, published for the period ending December 31 of the previous year.

(b) Consideration of the application for admission of new National Committees or Direct members to membership.

(c) Financial statements for the preceding year, duly audited, and the proposed budget for the current year.
(d) Consideration of the reports submitted by work bodies since the last Council meeting and the report and recommendations of the Management Board.

(e) Agenda notes for the annual meeting of the Committees to be considered by the IEC.

(f) Technical, administrative or constitutional matters proposed, for consideration by the Council, by the Special Constitution Committee by the National Committees, the Central Office, Office-Bearers, or any outside agency (ies).

(g) Invitations received for venues of future Council meetings and congresses / WIF.

(h) Election of Office-bearers.

4.1.3 At ordinary meetings of the Council during the years where Congress and World Irrigation Forum are not held, advantage may be taken by the host National Committee, should it so desire, to hold a discussion, on any specific technical subject of its choice and falling within the scope of activities of the Commission. No papers shall be invited for this discussion from other National Committees but the host National Committee shall provide to other National Committees and the Central Office two months before the meeting, a report on the subject, bringing out clearly the issues on which it would invite discussion.

4.2 Minutes

4.2.1 After a meeting of the Council, the Secretary-General shall ensure the preparation of the draft Minutes containing a gist of the important discussions and full texts of the decisions made and of the resolutions passed.

4.2.2 These draft minutes shall be circulated to the participants for confirmation, with or without corrections, within a period specified. Additions or alterations in keeping with the proceedings will be accepted at the discretion of the Secretary-General. In case of doubt or controversy the Secretary-General will resolve the differences on the basis of verbatim tape-recorded proceedings.

4.2.3 After the lapse of the specific period, the Secretary-General shall notify the participants of any amendments made to the draft Minutes. The amended Minutes will then be taken as the confirmed Minutes, which will be final and binding on the members.

4.3 Annual Report

The Annual Report of the Commission shall be prepared by the Secretary-General and published soon after the end of the financial year. The Annual Report shall present in brief the important activities carried out by the Commission, its work bodies, National Committees and the Central Office during the financial year covered by the report.

BY-LAW (5) – PARTICIPATION IN AND INVITATION FOR WORLD IRRIGATION FORUM (WIF) / CONGRESS OR A COUNCIL MEETING

5.1 Participation
