I. Introduction

The International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage (ICID) is a Scientific, Technical and Voluntary Not-for-profit Non-Governmental International Organization (NGO) with headquarters in New Delhi, India. The Commission is dedicated to enhancing the worldwide supply of food and fibre for all people by improving water and land management and the productivity of irrigated and drained lands through appropriate management of water, environment and application of irrigation, drainage and flood management techniques. The Commission was established in 1950 and now has a membership network of 110 countries across the globe. The activities of the Commission are carried out through 30 technical workbodies involving more than 400 experts from member countries. Thousands of professionals through member countries/ National Committees, international organizations, and from private companies are connected to ICID.

ICID publishes a quarterly Newsletter (renamed as ICID News) containing select articles from experts in the field of water resources, irrigation, drainage, flood management, besides other news items of interest to irrigation community across the world. The ICID News is a flagship publication of ICID and widely circulated to member countries, Government Departments/ Ministries, Office Bearers, International Organizations and individual professionals/ consultants world over. The past issues of the ICID News can be viewed at <http://www.icid.org/news_icidnews.html>.
